HARVARD UNIVERSITY LIBRARY MAY 3 1956

56 Broadway
New York, Oct. 23. 1861.

My dear Sir.

Your letter of the 16th relative to forwarding books to my brother Henry Stevens Esq. of London is received. In reply I have to say that I am in communication with my brother per Steamer from New York every week and will be pleased to take charge of any and all packages you desire to send to him.

However it will be just as well for you to send them to him direct, less expensive - in this way.

Send your boxes if heavy per Ship, if not over 500 or 800 lbs. send them by Steamer to Liverpool simply marked thus "HSI" - take your Bill of Lading in triplicate, pay charges to Liverpool, send per Steamer mail one Copy of Bill of Lading to Henry, advising him fully of Shipment, number of box, etc:. as well as its contents and the object the publications are intended for, at the same time advise him how to charge expenses that may occur at Liverpool & in London.

To the address "HSI" you may add "4 Trafalgar Square" "London"
